I write this note about Lent on Shrove Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday. At Northwest Presbyterian the Church office is busy with details related to Lent. Bulletins are being printed. A Lenten Devotional Guide is being made ready for you. During the Wednesday night suppers we are suggesting different ways you can use reading scripture, prayer, music, study, simplicity of life style and self expression such as art to help in preparation for Easter. Different families in the church are preparing soup and a salad or sandwich that we might eat simply and focus our minds on the things of the Spirit.

Lent is the 40 day period before Easter Sunday (minus the Sundays). It has always been a time that believers used to prepare their own lives for the great gift from God in Jesus Christ. There were times when we thought of Lent simply as giving something up for those 40 days. But, that simply missed the deeper meaning. The season of Lent offers us time to center into the deep spiritual reflections which are offered to us through study and prayer. It is a time for God to re-center our lives. It is a time to turn over to God the burdens that weigh us down. It is a time “to lose our luggage” that makes us sag and have no energy.

So, we invite you in these days that we have left to use them wisely. Set aside some time to listen to your heart. Then listen for God to speak to you. Know that there is growth available to us all. You may know the song: “Woke up this mornin’ with my mind stayed on Jesus.” That is part of what Lent means. Reflecting on the life of Jesus, we think of his care for the poor. We reflect on how he sought justice for the oppressed – women, servants, outcasts. We recall his acts of healing when people were hurting. We remind ourselves that he fed people who were hungry.

Today as you read this newsletter, we are moving into the month of March in Lent and then on to Holy Week. We will process together on Sunday, April 1, as on that first Palm Sunday singing, “Hosanna, Glory to God in the Highest.” Do not forget Maundy Thursday, April 5, of that week where the congregation gathers for the Service of Tenebrae to remember the Last Supper with Jesus and his disciples. And, then comes Easter, April 8! These are high holy days ahead of us. They will be the last ones with Randy Calvo, Jr. as our Pastor. I invite you to come and be a light to others in this holy season. Reach out to one another and to the visitor in your midst and speak a word of kindness. This faith community is precious in God’s sight. We have a new way ahead of us. Come and walk this pilgrim journey together.

As ever,

Mary Miller Brueggemann
At its January meeting, the Session of Northwest approved the formation of an Interim Pastor Nominating Committee for the purpose of seeking out and securing an interim pastor to replace Rev. Randy Calvo upon his departure in April. This person will serve our congregation as our Interim Senior Pastor until a permanent pastor can be located and installed. The members of the nominating committee include Henry Quillian, chairperson, Martha Greenway, George Hauptfuhrer, Dick Wilbanks, and Ellen Carrington.

Out of necessity, this committee has organized itself and moved into action very quickly. Resumé information on approximately 10 candidates has been reviewed and the search has been narrowed to 4 primary candidates. First interviews have taken place with these four candidates and a second interview has been completed with one of the committee’s top two candidates.

As you can see, it will not be long before the committee will have a recommendation to the Session for an Interim Pastor. Watch for updated information soon - as soon as it becomes available it will be passed on to the congregation at large. The committee requests that you be in prayer for this process and for the committee members as well as each candidate.
As you know, after 10 years of committed service, our Senior Pastor, Randy Calvo has submitted his resignation and has requested that it become effective on April 8th. In order to express our appreciation to Randy for the care and dedication he has shown during his ministry here, the Coordinating Council of the Session is planning a Farewell Potluck Banquet in Randy’s honor to be held after the worship service on Sunday, April 15th. Please mark your calendar now so that you won’t miss this opportunity to say farewell to Randy and Dyann and to express your appreciation for Randy’s service to the Northwest congregation throughout these many years.

January Session Meeting Minutes

At its January stated meeting, the Session of Northwest took the following actions:

Motions Approved:

- The Session approved the 2007 Budget.
- The Session approved 2007 Communion Dates.
- The Session approved a request from Jean Carol Mundy to transfer membership to the Lavonia Presbyterian Church, Lavonia, GA and to retain an affiliate membership at Northwest.

- Commissioned Applause for Kids Subcommittee: The Session commissioned a group to investigate a longer-term relationship with Applause for Kids and enter into an agreement with them if deemed desirable. The group is to consist of Kaye Mulkeen, Carroll Harris, Susie Boartfield, Dick Wilbanks, Catherine Ealick-Anderson, and Sandra Thorton.

- Received Senior Pastor Resignation: With deep regret, the Session also received Randy’s resignation. After hearing from a representative from the Presbytery concerning the actions that needed to be taken, the Session scheduled a Congregational Meeting for Sunday, February 18, to act on its recommendation to accept Randy’s resignation and to terminate the pastoral relationship, effective Easter Sunday, April 8, as he requested. It further recommended that the Associate Pastor Nominating Committee be dissolved at that time. It designated the Clerk to receive the names of possible candidates for an Interim Pastor and to establish a committee of 3-5 people to search for an interim. It also designated the Coordinating Council to make plans to say goodbye to Randy and Dyann.
Night Hospitality at Clifton

Night Hospitality at Clifton, started in 1979 by the Clifton Presbyterian Church, is operated today by Clifton Sanctuary Ministries. The shelter, located in Candler Park not far from the Carter Center, provides meals, beds, and a sense of community to as many as 36 men every day of the year. Night Hospitality depends to a large extent on volunteers from local Presbyterian churches to cook and serve dinners for the men.

Not only are the men at Night Hospitality gracious and appreciative of our efforts to serve a meal, but also they especially value our company and interaction. Some may ask for help selecting a tie for their interview the next day.

Northwest currently provides volunteers on the fourth Saturday evening of every other month (August, October, December, February, April, and June) from 6:00 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. In the past year, the Barry and Rebecca Holderread family, Mary Miller Brueggemann, and the Brad and Lynne Miller family have served dinner. In February the S.O.S. (Students Offering Service), a group of eleventh grade volunteers from The Lovett School, took a meal and shared fellowship with the men at Clifton.

To volunteer for this important ministry and experience the joy of service for yourself, please contact Laura West (404-252-4842).

Druid Hills Night Shelter Needs You!

Every fourth Thursday evening from November through April, folks from Northwest Presbyterian Church serve dinner to about 30 men who sleep at the shelter at Druid Hills Presbyterian Church. These men have been through alcohol and drug rehabilitation programs as needed. Now they have either gotten a job or are actively looking for a job. They have been referred to the DHPC night shelter as men who are eager and ready to live independently as soon as they are able.

We prepare food in advance. It is our job to have the food at the Night Shelter, which is located at Druid Hills Presbyterian Church (just behind the Offices of Greater Atlanta Presbytery), at 6:30 pm. The men start returning to the shelter at 6:30 pm and dinner is served at 7:00 pm. Bill Smith, the night manager, helps the residents set up the tables and get everything in order to serve. We join in with a table blessing and then serve the food and the men do the clean up. Often by 7:45 or 8:00 pm we are on our way home. It is always a very satisfying experience – helping others always is! We have two more dates: March 22nd and April 26th. Think about volunteering. It is a wonderful family thing to do!

One Great Hour of Sharing — Sunday, April 8th

At Northwest, part of participation in this Holy Season is giving to One Great Hour of Sharing. We will take a special offering on Sunday, April 8th. We join with many Christians around the world in giving money for disaster relief, for feeding the hungry and in working for the self-development of poor people around the world. Often the church is the first presence there when disaster strikes. Your dollars are used wisely with almost no overhead. I hope you will give generously to this important offering.
Swingin’ Luncheon Planned for Senior Adults!

Senior adults, it’s time once again to mark your calendars for another luncheon just for you! On Sunday, March 18th you’ll want to stay after church for a festive, St. Patrick’s Day themed luncheon, complete with a delicious menu and unique entertainment provided by the local swing band, Caledonia Swing. So, put this date on your calendar and R.S.V.P. by calling the church office (404-237-5539) today. We’ll look forward to seeing you there!

Caledonia Swing

Caledonia Swing is an Atlanta-based band performing their own unique style of traditional and contemporary Celtic music with occasional 1930’s swing tunes thrown in for fun. The band was formed in 2004 by its principals Margie Swint on vocals and guitar, Marie Dunkle on violin and cello and Ken Shearer on guitar. The musical style of Caledonia Swing was inspired by the sweet sounds of Scotland as well as swing jazz greats Django Reinhardt and Stephan Grapelli. The band’s music ranges from elegant to toe tapping. Caledonia Swing brings its musical talents, love for improvisation and infectious energy to musical stages throughout the Atlanta area.

Pick Up Your Copy of Northwest’s Lenten Devotional Guide

A wonderful resource had been made available for Northwest members who would like to enhance their study of scripture during this season of Lent. The Lenten Devotional Guide gives Bible readings for each day during the season and encourages the use of the Lectio Divina (Latin for divine reading or holy reading) technique of meditation upon the scriptures. Lectio Divina is a very ancient art, practiced at one time in the early church by all Christians. In 200 A.D., Origen, one of the early church fathers emphasized the value of reading scripture with attention, constancy, and prayer. It is a way of praying the scriptures that calls us to study, ponder, listen, and pray from God’s Word. Using this guide can help you create a disciplined approach to prepare yourself in Lent for God’s gift in Jesus Christ.

You may pick up your copy of the Lenten Devotional Guide in the Narthex or in the church office.

What Does Service Look Like?

Below are photos taken while Northwest church members were serving food at various Atlanta homeless ministries. Call Laura West (404-252-4842) to volunteer to become a member of one of these important service teams.

Food for Both Tummy and Soul

Join us for a Sunday lunch together on March 25th immediately following the worship service. The Witness Team is especially pleased to announce that the meal will be catered by Tummy & Soul, which is an offshoot of the Georgia Avenue Food Co-Op Program. That venture began in 1991 with just 13 families and has now grown to include more than 200 families.

The Tummy & Soul catering business helps to provide living wage salaries for disadvantaged people within the co-op program. Our menu will include baked ham, broccoli and cheese casserole, sweet potatoes, and a lovely surprise for dessert. The cost is $6.50 per adult, $3.50 per child with a $20.00 family maximum. Be sure to call the church office (404-237-5539) and make your reservation right away as this meal promises to be a real treat for both tummy and soul.
Christian education continues in March with exciting classes for all ages! Children and youth will continue their classes and the details on the two adult classes are below:

Basic Christianity Class

Mary Brueggemann will lead a 3-week Bible study for those wishing to dig deeper into God’s Word. Don’t miss this opportunity to gain a new understanding of scripture shared by a fantastic biblical teacher.

Faith Today Class

Rich Clark will lead a 3-week discussion on the topic: Living as a Christian in a World of Conflict - Reflections on the Wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. This will be a provocative class that will tackle the tough issues facing today’s world.

Dunn Did

A special word of appreciation goes to The Robert and Polly Dunn Foundation and to Karen Wilbanks, a Trustee for the foundation, for the offering of $10,000 they have made to fund this year’s Charis home. What a blessing! Please let Karen know how much you appreciate her effort and the Foundation gift. Dunn did it and now it is up to us to get the construction done! We are indebted to the Foundation for making this possible!

“All you wanted to Know . . .”

What? The coalition of Northwest Presbyterian Church, the Pleasant Hill Presbyterian Church, and Gensler, an architectural firm will work to build this year’s Charis home.

When? The first of six Saturday work days is March 17th when the team will frame the two story, 1,300 square foot home. A sign-up sheet will be available during breakfast each Sunday morning and in the Narthex before and after the Sunday worship service throughout the duration of the project. When you sign up you may pick up a schedule of work days and a map to the site. We need ten able-bodied people each Saturday.

Who? You! Any person who can swing a hammer, use a paint brush, carry material, be a helper, tack wraparound vapor barrier, stuff in and staple insulation, etc. If you have skills, that’s great, but not necessary.

Where? In an area of Southeast Atlanta where an overall land-use plan is being followed to revitalize the neighborhood into a wholesome, viable, self-sustaining, mixed-income community. The goal is to create a place where peace is present and where people’s lives and their community are transformed. Through Charis, we will work to help create a place where residents will be actively involved in their neighborhood association and in neighborhood events.

Why? Because the need to revitalize and re-neighbor our most impoverished communities is critical. Those of us who have so much to give must remember that “It is far more blessed to give . . .” And yes, we must love our neighbors as ourselves.

How? By God’s Grace. That is, in fact, what “Charis” means. Grace. And in working together we can accomplish so much more. It is amazing to see a group of senior citizens lift roof trusses, nail together prefab walls and build a house. Unthinkable as an individual, but done with ease as a group. And let us never forget that we are blessed to be a blessing!

Piece By Piece We Do Make a Difference!

Deanie Quillian, chair of this year's auction, brought together a team of more than twenty men and women to work on this year's Mission Auction. Thanks to the congregation's generous donations, the Presbyterian Women will again be able to make significant contributions to the Reynoldstown Civic Association, our Northwest youth group's mission trip to Jamaica, and other vital ministries. The children of Northwest were asked "What does God look like?" Each child drew a picture of their response to this question and the drawings are part of a beautiful quilt which was sold in the live auction. The quilt will remain at the church and will be permanently displayed for all to enjoy. While the more than $9,000 raised during the entire afternoon will benefit many benevolences, funds from the sale of the children's quilt will go toward the purchase of an AED (Automated External Defibrillator) to be placed in the church gymnasium. Recipes for the salad dressing and the tomato basil cream soup will be on the PW bulletin board outside the church office. For a charming history lesson about the Mission Auction, please look on page 10 in this newsletter for an article by Wini Myrick.
